

From a Health Navigator:

A patient formalised her Whānau Tahī, which has her standardised treatment plan embedded in it. This means that when she presents at any one of her health providers, she receives the same treatment. She now has weekly appointments with her GP, and has a marked reduction of presentations to ED since her Whānau Tahī has been in place.

